New Train Schedule—Negro, Burgle

Metanani and Garrett Cases.

Railroad Office Robbed.

The L. & N. ticket office at Elkton was robbed of about $35 last Thursday night. Entrance was effected by prizing up a window. Two negroes have been arrested on warrants charging them with the crime.

Commercial Travelers Take Holiday.

Commercial travelers are getting conspicuously scarce over the country. Nearly all of them have gone to their respective homes to spend the holidays, and there is no class of people who will enjoy the furrough more than the "drummers." They will not "take the road" again until about the 5th of January, 1897.

"The Causes of Insanity."

Dr. A. F. Stanley, assistant physician at the asylum, has been invited by Prof. Alexander, of the Western Kentucky College, South Carroll, to deliver a lecture on the causes of insanity. The time is the next forenoon. Dr. Stanley will likely accept and make a date early in January.

A Large Potato Crop.

Mr. Palmer Graves, raised 1300 bushels of sweet potatoes on six acres of ground this year, which are worth fifty cents a bushel in the markets. This beats either wheat, corn or tobacco. Diversified farming is the only hope for the farmer under the present gold standard.

Making up the Ticket.

The Populists of Henderson county on Saturday nominated the candidates allowed them under the fusion agreement. They selected Wynn G.
Dixon for Sheriff; C. E. Suggs, for Superintendent of Schools; R. M.
Schaeffer, (or Assessor); S. Rousseau, for Coroner, and Dr. A. S. Denton for Representative.

Charles McDaniel Held Over.

The examining trial of Chas. G.
McDaniel, which was in progress Thursday when we went to press, was concluded late that evening. Judge Headen's decision was that the accused should be held over, and Mr. Mc-Daniel was accordingly continued under bond until the meeting of the February grand jury.

Faris Convicted of Forgery.

W. B. Faris, formerly a resident of this city, and later engaged in business in Clarksville, was convicted Saturday, and given three years in the penitentiary. He passed a bad check in Clarksville during the fair in October and has been in jail ever since.
Faris and his brother, H. P. Faris, the auctioneer, conducted a brokers' clothing store on West Seventh street in this city for several months. He is unmarried and is said to be a member of a good family near Murray, Ky.
The case will probably be appealed.

Probable Weather This Week.

The weather profits say we may expect a sweeping and intense cold wave this week, which will extend very far south. Closely following this will be a storm of rain, which will be followed by a cold wave. In the extreme south destructive rains with lightning and thunder, turning to sleet storms, blizzards and blockades in Central and Northern sections are promised. It is predicted that the month will end with gales and a continental cold wave.

No snow of consequence is billed for the month, but there will be several heavy falls of "the beautiful," in January, if calculations are correct.

He Held Up His Hands.

For some weeks past some one has been robbing the cash drawer of Mr.
E. H. Anderson's store at News' end of various sums. On Saturday the house was closed in for Mr. Anderson and his clerks were to dinner. In a few minutes Mr. W. W. Rossington, who has charge of the store, returned to the house and entering by a side door, came upon Hume Sharp, col., just as he was closing the cash drawer. Several dollars were missing.
Sharp was ordered to "hold up his hands," which he did, and he was immediately brought to this city by Mr.
Anderson and lodged in jail.

Preston Bailey, a Boone County farmer, was accidentally shot and killed by a boy named Harry Jones.

THE CENSUS TAKER.

Good Progress being Made by the Directory Man.

Mr. Thornton who is compiling the city directory and numbering the houses, is meeting with encouragement on every street, but is still hampered in his work by the absence of business men to leave information with their wives. At many houses he met with the statement "you must see my husband," which means a search in a different portion of the city for the man in question.
The work is of a character that must be done systematically and street by street and every house and its occupants should be disposed of in turn and at one call. A little attention to this would greatly facilitate the work on streets not yet visited. Main and the streets west of Main and north of Seventh have not yet been numbered and Mr. Thornton requests that this country be kept in the mind of all house-holders on those streets. Let the ladies be authorized to sign for numbers and furnish all necessary information.

The Kentucky office has been given the contract to print the directory and there will be no doubt of its success.

THE RACE LINE.

Indications That It Is To Be Drawn In The Garrett Case.

The trial of Clifton Garrett for the shooting of Tom and Reuben Leavell will be called at Bolivar to-day. His bond was fixed at $1000 the day after the shooting by Esq. Barker, but one of the negroes has since died and the examining trial is no longer in the jurisdiction of the magistrate. Young Garrett will be on hand to meet his bond for shooting and the case will probably be transferred to the county court and a day set for the trial in this city, unless the matter should be simplified by waiving examination.
There are indications that politics is to play a conspicuous part in the case. The Republicans will try to turn heaven and earth to convict Garrett, who had the boldness to shoot a county committeeman in his own necessary self-defense. It is said that some of his white sympathizers in this city have spent a night under old Reuben Leavell's roof since the shooting and there are many indications that Garrett is to be persecuted as well as prosecuted, for political effect.

Garrett has retained C. H.
Bush and John Poland, Sr., as his attorneys.

The Kentuckian Carriers.

On next Friday morning the KEN-TUCKIAN's carrier boys, Jimmie South-all on the Southern route and Frank Torian on the Northern, will call upon the subscribers to whom they have delivered papers during the year with their annual Christmas greeting.
The address is a nice little poem appropriate to the season, tastily prepared in colors and making a handsome souvenir for Christmas. The carriers who will present it have been in many respects more attentive and painstaking than any boys who have ever delivered any paper in the city. They have had orders to deliver all papers indoors or on porches and not throw them over gates to be destroyed by the elements, or stolen by newspaper thieves. They have, so far as we know, faithfully carried out their instructions and have thereby given service that deserves some token of appreciation from their patrons.
They will deliver the papers as usual on Christmas morning.

Be ready for them and gladden their hearts with a Christmas offering.

Bethel College Concert.

The recital and concert at Bethel Female College Friday night was one of those delightfully pleasant entertainments that have become a feature of the school work. This excellent institution. The entertainment was largely attended by the friends of the college and all who were there were more than pleased with the enjoyable program so largely rendered by the young lady teachers and pupils. The first session, which is nearing a close, has been a successful one and a still larger degree of success is confidently looked forward to when the spring session opens. The holiday recess will be taken Thursday evening and most of the young ladies will go to their homes to spend Christmas week.

tled with the State.

A TRIPLE LYNCHING.

TWO PROCTORS: FATHER AND SON, HANGED TO A CEDAR TREE.

And a Second Son Shot to Death, in the Jail at Russellville, by a Mob From Adairville. Where Aaron and Doc Crafton Were Killed on November 24
Last.

Russellville, Ky., Dec. 18.—Dink and Arch Proctor, father and son, were taken from the jail at 2 a. m., and hanged to a cedar tree just outside that town, and Bill Proctor, another son, was shot and killed in his cell.

A mob of about 100 men broke into the jail about 1:40 a. m. by battering down the door with sledge hammers. The jailer was forced to give up the cell keys. The Proctors were up, as they had been warned the day before of what was to come.
Bill Proctor swore he would not leave his cell alive, and as he was a powerful man and hard to handle, one of the mob shot him with a pistol. Immediately afterward a charge of bullet was fired at him and as he fell, a volley of pistol shots were fired. About 20 balls entered his body.

After Proctor was down, a man entered the cell and placed a pistol in the hand of the fallen man, pulled the trigger, and thus died the most dangerous man in Logan county.

The mob then took Doc Proctor and his son Arch out of their cells and bound their hands, after the jailer had made an unheeded plea for mercy for the father. The mob which had now increased to 200 men, escorted the prisoners to a three-limbed cedar tree on the Nashville road and strung father and son up side by side. Their bodies were cut down several hours later.

The mob came from Adairville, and they cut all the telegraph wires leading from that point in order to prevent notice being given of their coming.

Mrs. Proctor, wife of Dink, and mother of Arch and Bill, was asleep in the hotel here when the lynching took place. She had come to attend the examining trial, and Arch begged the mob pitifully to be allowed to see his mother before he was hanged, but his request was refused.

Arch Proctor killed Aaron and Doc Crafton at Adairville, November 24.
Bill and Dink were charged with conspiring to have the Crafts killed.
Bill and Dink were acquitted of the charge in the first case, and Arch was held over on a $2,000 bond. Their trial was set for a date in the future. Bill Proctor was one of the four who was charged with hanging El Trumbull about two years ago and has since several times been in prison for his life. Dink has always been a quiet fellow and this is the first time he has been in trouble.

Jailer Morgan pleaded with the mob not to hang them, but the answer was that "Dead men tell no tales." Bill and Dink were sent to prison and Arch was Dink's son.

The general public approved of the killing of Bill and Arch, but thought that Dink should have been left alone. The people of Adairville feel they are almost in Heaven, as Bill Proctor was a terror to every human being in it. Great crowds are viewing the dead bodies.

Put It Off till May.

The Republican County Committee met Saturday and held two sessions, but did nothing towards nominating county officers.

A majority of the 92 members were present and the candidates did a good deal of electioneering with them.
As was expected, the committee decided to make the nominations itself without holding a convention or primary, but postponed action until the last Saturday in May 1897. This was done to give a majority to the committee in the revenue service and thus simplify the work for the committee.
The number of candidates for sheriff, assessor and jailer is daily multiplying. There are no negro candidates except for jailer and coroner.

The Doltoerals who this year voted for McKinley were formally recognized by the appointment of Herbert L.
Trice as a committeeman in the Pembroke district.

With the exception of some of the minor officers the ticket is virtually made up now. By the decision to have the committee appoint the candidates the ring will perpetuate itself.

Drowned in a Mill-Pond.

Ed Buckner, col., drove out to Wood's Mill yesterday morning to get a barrel of water. When he backed his horse down to the stream, the animal slipped down, and horse and cart sank to the bottom of the mill-pond. Buckner jumped out upon the ground as the outfit went down into the water and thus saved himself.
